

Miami Herald

SUNDAY MAY 20 2018
MIAMIHERALD.COM

Miami Herald

15M

Steph Sez

ORIANNE COLLINS DAZZLES MIAMI WITH HER SPARKLES AND CHARITY

Philanthropist and jewelry designer Orianne Collins rocked Miami with her

STEPH SEZ
Stephanie Sayfle Aagaard

dazzling jewels with nonstop celebrations across town. Yes, two bashes to be exact. From an afternoon seated luncheon to an evening reception, Orianne was toasted for her exquisite pieces in both Neiman Marcus Coral Gables and her new Miami Design District store. Yes, Collins was lauded by event hostesses Swanee DiMare, Bronwyn Miller, Norma Jean Abraham, and Lesli Brown at the Orianne Collins Jewelry Line Luncheon at Neiman Marcus Coral Gables. Ladies and gents turned out to feast their eyes on Collin's latest designs before a divine lunch. Next Orianne was joined by music legend stones and 18k gold. Guests were treated to champagne and delicious bites as they viewed the collections and new flagship store.

EVENT-BY-THE-SEA

The Estates at Acqualina, the $1.8 billion residential development in Miami's Sunny Isles Beach, hosted a one-of-a-kind groundbreaking event to celebrate the official start of construction. Hosted by Eddie, Jules and Stephanie Trump, the dramatic oceanfront ceremony featured a marching band, 25 Rolls-Royce vehicles and a surprising aerial show set to the sounds of "The Champion" by Carrie Underwood and Ludacris. When the first of two ultra-luxury towers is ready for occupancy in 2020, it will feature lobby designs by creative icon Karl Lagerfeld, marking his first residential project in the U.S. "This day for us is a day of great celebration and great joy,"

Miami Herald

5-time Emmy Award winning composer Jeff Beal conducting the Henry Mancini Institute Orchestra with actor William Hurt, star of movie "Battleground" on the screen.

Sascha Peters and Orianne Collins at VENUS Fashion Host First-Ever Influencer Celebration, Girl About Town at Soho Beach House. Photo credit: Seth Browarnik/ WorldRedEye.com.

relationships and different races, orientation and

and YWCA Miami will take part in the program.

The tailgate initiative stems from