

Redistribution Day - July 4, 2020

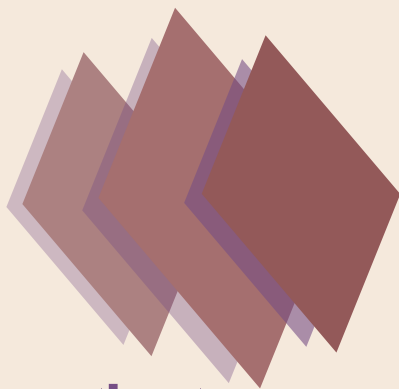

Independence Day is a federal holiday in the United States commemorating the Declaration of Independence of the United States, on July 4, 1776. Systemic racism started in America 401 years ago and Independence day is celebrated under the impression that we are all free - which is not true.

Redistribution Day - August 21, 2020

Black August - this day was first commemorated by incarcerated brothers and sisters when George Jackson was murdered by prison guards on August 21, 1971 at San Quentin State Prison. This day is a day to honor all of those who have been lost to unjust violence and systemic racism.
