Meggan Morimoto – Bridal & Beyond Luxury Shoes

For a long while now, Meggan Morimoto's luxury bridal footwear has been made to order – but their new collection Bridal & Beyond signifies a shift into something that's more accessible.

And, what do we love more than accessibility? A brand that values slow and sustainable fashion. These (very comfy, might we add) shoes are handmade in Tuscany in limited quantities, made with premium Italian nappa leathers, and have a secret hidden insole crafted from podiatric memory foam – if that doesn't scream comfort, what will?!

We don't want you going and thinking that accessibility compromises quality. This collection is made to endure the wedding day dance floor and beyond. You'll be pulling these out on your 20th wedding anniversary to relive your first dance; we know it.

The new collection is made up of five shoes and ten detachable embellishments. Think clip-on pearl embellishments, metallic leather obi bows, organza blossoms, pearl anklets, and silk ankle wraps that allow you to customize your look. Style it up or down – your choice.

Alma is the perfectly pared-back pump, a pointed-toe style in pearlized white leather. For the bold, minimalist bride, there's James – a stunning slingback stiletto, in soft gold or bright tangerine nappa, with a 9-cm heel. Victoria is a vertiginous white leather platform sandal with a delicate ankle strap, while Martina is a gorgeous soft gold, metallic leather mule. Rounding out the collection is the Tatiana block-heel sandal – timeless and elegant in soft gold nappa.

We can hear you asking, how much will a pair of these set me back? Well, Meggan Morimoto's ready-to-wear shoes will retail from AU$909 with detachable embellishments ranging between AU$225-275. And, you'll find them exclusively over at morimoto.com.au.

Lauren & Sofia – A Spooky Cemetery Proposal

Obsessed with history and all things dark and spooky, Lauren knew the only place she could propose to Sofia was at a cemetery in Salem.

We have been together a year and a half and actually had a chance meeting on Tinder. We started talking the day the COVID shutdown happened! Definitely a silver lining to a scary situation

...something so early on.

We had discussed the desire and likelihood of spending the rest of our lives together. But the proposal was a secret surprise for Sofia.

We are fascinated by all things history and all things dark and spooky. We had been to Salem prior for a weekend and had one of the best times we have ever had. Sofia feels very at peace and safe in cemeteries, and although I may not understand it, I knew it had to be done there.

Luxury Shoes

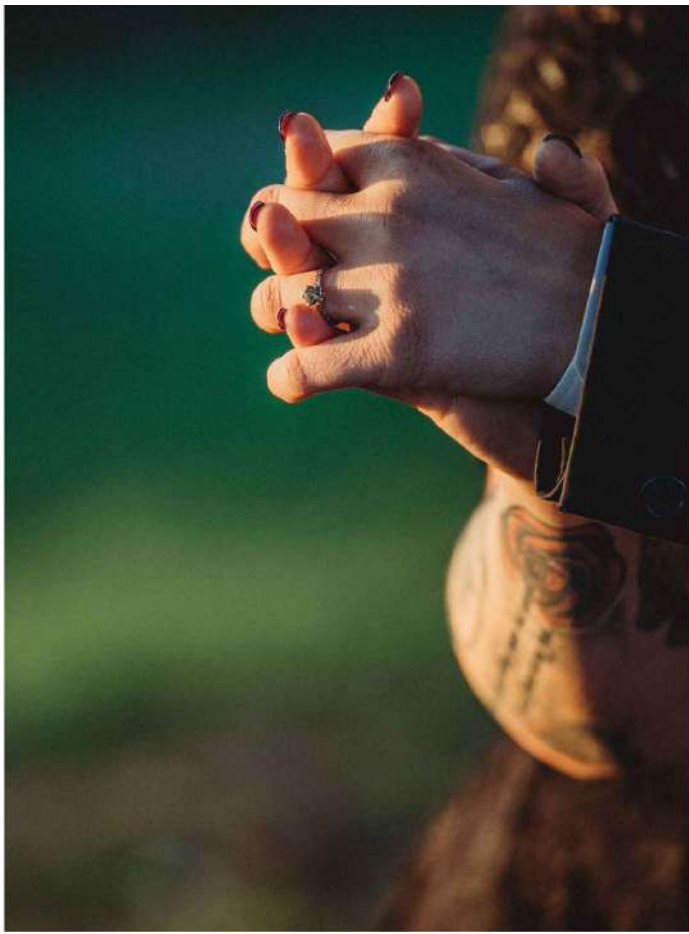

Nothing has necessarily changed since the engagement, but our relationship evolves and gets stronger daily. We are true partners, we support, confide in, and stand by each other's side through anything life throws at us. We know relationships take work, and we will do just that every day but every bit of effort is so worth it to be able to love and see your best friend every day.

Wedding planning is going goo – we plan something that's beautiful and happy but on the 'darker' side. An outdoor ceremony at Salem Mass will be brought to life with darker floral arrangements and candles.

And, what's the point of getting married at a place like Salem if you don't do it on Halloween weekend?!

Meaghan & Selena – A Luxury Picnic Proposal

We've been together for just over eight months, but we met almost two years ago over TikTok. We connected over Snapchat, and the rest is history!

I knew the proposal was happening soon, but Selena planned the entire proposal in three days. She found a luxury picnic company off of Instagram and had planned a butterfly entrance with music playing in the background. I was blindfolded walking into it and had no idea where we were going.
