MEGGAN MORIMOTO: SPRING SUMMER DROP

ARTICLE BY Sophie POSTED ON 21/10/2022 POSTED IN Fashion & Beauty

New shoes? Heck yes! There are few joys in life as great as a fresh pair of incredible heels, and your wedding day is the perfect opportunity to nab a new pair. And not just any pair, we say – you want the best for the big day and the fabulously talented Meggan Morimoto is here to help with a drop of three fresh designs to her best-selling Bridal And Beyond collection.

Now, before you think “Wait, only three new styles?”, read on, because, in trademark Meggan Morimoto fashion, these incredible new heels can be converted via the addition of the line’s detachable embellishments – aka you can style these babies into more than 15 new looks to create the style that best suits you. What’s more, you can dress them up or down, making them the ideal ceremony-to-reception-to-life-beyond-the-big-day shoe.

Let’s get to know the new designs a little better, shall we? First up there’s the Bianca pump, featuring a pointed toe in a pearlised white mesh – divine. Then there’s the beautiful pearlised white Tatiana sandal – a more demure take on the gold colourway that’s currently in the collection. And if you’re looking for a bold statement, meet the dramatic (and much-loved) James slingback, which the MM team have brought out in striking black.

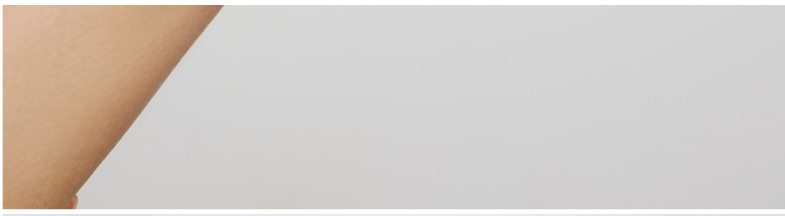

Meggan Morimoto shoes are all handmade in Italy and the carefully curated new styles are as beautifully made as we’ve come to expect from the brand (ofc), crafted with a slow, sustainable approach. Priced from $909, the quality craftsmanship means you get to love these pieces for years to come – no one-night wonders here! – and with only limited quantities of each style produced, you’ll know you’ve got something super spesh to slip onto your tootsies come the big day.
