FABRIC SELECTIONS

The Project

- Pin Display Handbag
- Also Called an Itabag
- From the Japanese Manga and Anime Culture
- These bags provide a safe and clean way to display enamel pins, buttons and figurines.
- Roughly translates to Painful Bag
 - This could be referring to Painful Expensive
 - Painful to carry around

CUTTING part 1

From the small sewing machine fabric

OUTER BAG: Cut 1, 13" x 16" piece (The width of the bag is the 13" side. So, if you care to arrange fabric direction keep this in mind)

FUSE WITH FUSIBLE FLEECE

From the green thread top fabric

INNER BAG: Cut 1, 13" x 16" piece (same advice for directional fabric above)

FUSE WITH CRAFT FUSE

From the lime green and pink spool fabric

OUTER FLAP: Cut 1 11" x 11" square

FUSE ONLY LIME with CRAFT FUSE

Subcut both 11" squares into

- 1, 1 ½" strip
- 2, 1 ½" x 5 ½" strips
- 3 ½" x 11" Piece

CUTTING part 2

From Pincushion machine fabric

INNER Vinyl Pocket Lining:

- Cut 1, 5" x 11" piece
- Cut 1, 16" x 11" piece

FUSE WITH FUSIBLE WOVEN

From the Aqua Spool Fabric

PIN DISPLAY BOARD: Cut 2, 7" x 10"

From the Strapping:

2, 4" pieces

1, ~62" long piece

From the Stabilizers

Craft Fuse: 1, 13" x 16"

1, 11" square

Fusible Fleece: 1, 13" x 16"

Fusible Woven: 1, 5" x 11"

16" x 11"

Peltex: 1, 6" x 9"

MARKING

- ▶ Mark both the Lining and Main Fabric 13" x 16" pieces on the wrong side:
- ▶ Mark a center line on both the main bag and lining rectangles using the 6" x 24" quilting ruler. On the back side, measure the middle of one long side (8" over from the corner of the long 16" edge), do the same on the other long edge, and join the marks to create the center line. Then mark 1 1/2" up from each edge and 1" over from the center mark on both ends
