The logo of Woman Plus Style brand is a compass. Compass represents women who have lived their lives with their own will and cleverness, and Womanplus Style creates maternity wears for them. Life is a long journey. You have walked your life with the navigation of your own compass. We celebrate your very merry new start with your baby, and more fulfilling days for both private and business.

A decent color suit made of fine summer wool gives you more confidence on your busy days at work. A cotton blouse with very good texture and an extraordinarily comfortable linen pants help you relax, and be more of yourself during your weekends.

women who become mothers.believe Womanplus Style maternity wears will bring happiness to many women other than with fine quality of the fabric and three dimensional design with superior workmanship, we stages of lives. Sensibility and tidiness are characteristics of Japanese designs. Together inclusive ability to please not only mothers to be as well as the women who are in different after birth, they should still fit elegantly on you. Clothes made with all our hearts have an Jackets and tops made by three-dimensional patterns are not too big for your body even
