INSIDE OUT

with Halo Pave

Halo Tiles & Bathrooms are pleased to announce an expansion to its product offering with the addition of an outdoor porcelain paving range, Halo Pave.

Outdoor porcelain tiles offer a paving solution for commercial and residential spaces, providing a range of benefits that make them ideal for the Irish climate. A durable 2cm thickness, stylish aesthetics and a wide range of sizes from 60cm × 60cm to 120cm × 120cm, make them a perfect fit for contemporary landscapes.

Products in the Halo Pave range have been manufactured to the highest quality standards and have outstanding technical performances, including high resistance to wear, to mechanical stress, to weather and are slip resistant, all without compromising on style.

The range offers corresponding porcelain indoor tiles, in standard thickness, so indoor and outdoor décor can be matched.

The range allows for quick and easy dry installation on grass, sand and gravel. Suitable too for terraces and rooftops, they can also be used for raised flooring installations. Tiles in the range can also be installed on a concrete slab using traditional tiling methods with a suitable adhesive.

Thanks to their durability and weather-resistance, Halo Pave porcelain tiles can be cleaned with almost any detergent.

The Halo Pave range includes:

- Stone effect porcelain tiles
- Wood effect porcelain tiles
- Marble effect porcelain tiles
- Concrete effect porcelain tiles
