Nadine Belliveau

Nadine Belliveau is a visual artist from the Baie Sainte-Marie, Digby County, Nova Scotia where she has been creating professionally since 1971. A graduate of NSCAD , of Université de Moncton & Université Sainte-Anne, her contribution to the arts has been as an artist, as an educator at the community, school and university levels, as a founder of two galleries, as member of art associations, as past treasurer of ARCAC (Annapolis Region Community Arts Council), as past chair of the Association Acadienne des Artistes de la Nouvelle-Écosse and as past representative of the south west regional members of VANS. Her paintings explore the essence of nature by means of abstraction and decorative expression.
