The Oil Factor	Bomar presents Lavender Water (Hydrolat). This Water is Distilled from the Lavender plant at the highest level of purity to ensure a pure, premium hydrolat. Hydrolats (waters) are the aromatic remains after the steam-distillation process of the physical raw material. They are an excellent complement to essential oils because they are very gentle in their profile. The hydrolat smells like a deeper, earthier version of Lavender Essential Oil. The product is so gentle it has proved very popular in a wide range of baby products. A great relaxing aroma, hence its popularity as aroma mists & pillow mists.
Functionality	A by-product of the steam distillation of Lavender Oil. An extremely gentle product hence its popularity in baby products.
