The Oil Factor	Bomar presents Lemongrass, Essential Oil. Our wild harvested West Indian Lemongrass is a hit with formulators, mainly due to its fresh aroma, its something different to that of standard Lemon oil. The grass (or leaves) that is wild harvested is promptly dried before going through steam distillation, the by-product grass of the process is then utilised for cattle feed, so no waste. The results are a very fresh, lemon yet slightly earthy aroma. Popular in both food & cosmetics for its flavour & fragrance appeal. We suggest using this oil in any detox focused products or if you are trying to achieve a fresh, clean natural deodorant.
Functionality	A super detox oil. A fresh, lemon yet slightly earthy aroma! A popular food flavoring & cosmetic fragrance. Reduces greasy skin when the appropriate amount is used. Wild Harvested & no waste production. Blends well with other citrus essential oils. We think it is best served on its own. An oil that reflects freshness, cleanliness & vibrancy...
