About

We like to approach corporate gifting from a different angle. Whether expressing gratitude to an employee or sending thanks to a client, a gift should hold meaning for the recipient. For over fifteen years, we have been sourcing the very best of Irish design, products made by hand and integrity by skilled craftspeople all over Ireland. As an alternative to the mass-produced, Irish Design Shop can offer a wide range of memorable gift options that stand the test of time, both physically and emotionally.

Within this document/section, you will find a full overview of our corporate gifting service including our carefully chosen categories, gift-wrapping, personalisation, and delivery options. You will also find details on our gifting suite service which is most suitable for large groups.

CHOOSING A CUSTOMISABLE GIFT OPTION

Our carefully edited gift categories allow you to peruse our selection to ensure you choose the perfect gift. We have created each theme based on what is most popular with both our customers and corporate clients. Quality and craftsmanship is paramount with each product we have included. These themes are entirely customizable & our experienced team can offer guidance and advice should you need it.

Kitchen table

Our selection of functional items for the home to elevate your daily routine. Choose exceptionally crafted ceramics from makers all over Ireland, complemented by tabletop essentials such as serving boards and linen. To complete this gift option, we have sourced the best Irish artisan food producers, from small-batch chocolate makers to expert coffee roasters.

Fireside

A gift option that evokes the comfort of a fireside setting. Exceptional craftsmanship is celebrated in our Dursey Crystal collection made exclusively for Irish Design Shop. To complement, textures of tweed, sheepskin, and Connemara marble give a sumptuous feel to this gift category.

Great Outdoors

Gifts that celebrate the wild Irish landscape. Woolens to wrap up in, carefully chosen from the best textile mills and studios in Ireland. Paired with unique, handmade products that take inspiration from the rugged and varied mountains and coastlines.

Body and Soul

Our selection of gifts to pamper & restore, providing a moment of calm for the recipient. Crafted by hand using all-natural ingredients, our makers prioritize ethical, cruelty-free production methods to create indulgent products that are kind to all skin types and the planet.

Blankets and Throws

Our blankets and throws are sourced from the best textile mills around Ireland. A tradition of quality and craftsmanship is paramount for these weavers of exceptional textiles. Whether your preference is for super soft merino or traditional Irish tweed, our considered selection ensures there is something for everyone.

Woollens to Wear

A gift option that is both practical and thoughtful. Durable & cosy socks in a choice of organic Kerry wool or Donegal yarn. Hats and scarves in a choice of colours, patterns and yarns to keep you snug. Our wearable woollens are sourced from the best textile mills around Ireland. A tradition of quality and craftsmanship is paramount for these weavers of exceptional textiles.

DIFFERENT OFFERINGS

We offer a variety of ways to deliver your perfect gift, which are listed below. Understanding that each client and gifting occasion is unique, we advise that you contact us directly for pricing.

Direct Gifting

Simply choose your perfect gift and we will ship it direct to the recipient. Ideal for sending to remote workers, or those working in various locations, we offer thoughtful gift wrapping and a personalised card. Should you prefer gift items unwrapped and sent to one address, this is also possible and is ideal for larger orders and events.

Room Drops

Sourcing the best locally produced Irish craft and design, we can create the perfect gift for your guests upon arrival at a hotel or venue. Liaising directly with the hotel, we can handle the logistics of delivery or shipping. Choose to have your gifts wrapped and presented in our luxury rope-handled bags, or simply choose to have your gifts unwrapped, shipped to the destination & ready for presentation.

Gifting Suite

An onsite gifting experience unlike any other. As designers with over twenty years of experience, we understand the importance of creating impact with unique merchandising that integrates with your event space to create a truly memorable gifting experience.

Always communicating with the client, we inspect the site before planning our enticing displays to complement the space perfectly. Once the selection of gifts has been finalised, we arrange for the transportation of our custom, handbuilt units to any hotel or venue within Ireland. We pride ourselves on creating a tailored, unique gifting suite for each of our clients, elevating the experience for your guests. Our trained staff bring their passion and knowledge of Irish craft to your event, advising and packing each gift with care and efficiency.

Private Shopping

Our award-winning Drury Street shop has been a destination for the best Irish craft and design for over ten years. Located in Dublin's Creative Quarter, we pride ourselves on promoting the work of over 60 designers and craftspeople located around Ireland. Over two floors, you will find a selection of unique, Irish-made products unavailable elsewhere. Central to our first floor is our operational jewellers workbench, flanked by our custom-built cabinets displaying our in-house jewellery brand, each piece crafted by hand in our studio.

We offer a private, evening shopping experience for groups who favour a personal touch and time to peruse our selection of beautifully crafted products. Our knowledgeable staff can advise and give insight into the making process behind every item we sell. In addition, we can provide refreshments for your guests, partnering with one of our local, artisan establishments. A memorable shopping experience in the heart of Dublin city.
