

Quilters Blessing

May each quilt block hold the warmth of your heart and the stories of your hands.

May your needles be nimble, your bobbin never run out, and your seam ripper rest in peace.

May the colors dance together like old friends, creating a masterpiece that's uniquely yours.

In the quiet moments with your fabric and thread, may you find peace and inspiration.

As you gift your creations, may they wrap others in comfort and memories.

Here's to the quilter, the crafter of heirlooms, and the joy-bringer.

Happy quilting!
