

Statement of general policy and arrangements for Brighton Watersports
(Brighton Beach)

Overall and final responsibility for health and safety:

Adam Chinery

Day-to-day responsibility for ensuring this policy is put into practice:

Joe Williams, Samantha Owen, Sarah Murphy

The company will:

- Create a safe working environment for all employees where staff are encouraged to be actively involved in matters relating to health and where safety and health and where information is cascaded to all team members
- Prevent accidents and cases of work-related ill health (physical and mental) by managing the health and safety risks in the workplace
- Provide clear instructions and information, and adequate training, to ensure employees are competent to do their work
- Implement emergency procedures for emergencies at sea, evacuation in case of fire and other significant incidents.
- Maintain safe and healthy working conditions, provide and maintain equipment, provide PPE and ensure safe storage and use of substances and tools

Health and Safety law poster	Staff room
Accident book	Shop till
First Aid kit	Shop till Wet arch bottom of stairs

Signed by Adam Chinery: Date:.....