Dear User,

We really appreciate the effort of a Linux lover and guru Mr. Alkis who contributes to the packaging work of this driver and to the editing of the <https://linux.brostrend.com> manual for our Linux users and the community. Without his passion and help on this, we would not be able to offer you Linux technical support and high performance adapters to use with your Linux computers and devices.

In case you need any other assistance in using this BrosTrend adapter, please do not hesitate to contact us by sending an email at support@brostrend.com Our technical support team will reply to you as soon as possible.

As the manufacturer of BrosTrend adapters, we care a lot about your experiences in using them. We sincerely invite you to write a short product review on Amazon, so that we can know your feelings about this product. Other Linux users in the community will also benefit from your product review.

Thanks!

With Best Regards!

Allen from BrosTrend Technical Support Team
