Starting Out

Celebrating the life, growth, and development of baby animals, this series narrates the story of growing up in the wild. Using a reader-friendly first-person perspective, each book introduces key biological concepts as it follows the adorable animal through the start of its young life. The simple text and large photos of the animal in its natural environment will both entertain and enlighten as readers learn how the animal's physical features, lifestyle, and family relationships play a role in its growth and development.

Mane effect

Male lions usually sport a mane of fur around the neck. Manes darken and thicken with age. In the hottest habitats, male lions are maneless. In Botswana, some female lions have manes.

Spotlight on Nature

Books about animals are always popular—especially when the spotlight is placed on wild families in their natural habitat. In this series, the narrative feature interspersed throughout the text will draw in readers as they follow the animal's life journey—and will attract fans of classic nature shows, too. Each title emphasizes the importance of conservation, pointing out where people can see the animal in both captivity and the wild.

The fused jaws of anteaters, the permeable skin of salamanders, and the defining characteristics of various other fascinating animals are explored in the Living Wild series. Vivid photographs help take readers on a virtual field study to observe the life cycle and behaviors of each featured mammal, bird, fish, amphibian, or other creature. Each book also looks at past and present scientific research and includes a unique storytelling element in the form of an animal tale drawn from mythology or folklore. Progressively complex text draws readers into this interdisciplinary life science series.

CREATIVE EDITIONS

Founded in 1992, Creative Editions publishes picture books globally hailed for their innovation. Beautifully crafted with poetic prose and brilliant illustrations, these unique books give readers a window into the world and opportunities around them. High quality fiction and nonfiction stories attract children from preschool age to older readers. Engage with a polar bear, dive into the ocean depths, and celebrate childhood with our award-winning catalog of picture and board books.

I Spy with My Curious Eye

Following after Simon Says, Open the Book and Ready or Not, Here I Come!, this third collaboration brings another delightful adaptation to a beloved children's game. Warm illustrations take little ones on a magical hot air balloon adventure where bold adjectives prompt readers and listeners alike to play along as they find objects in nature based on contextual clues.

Emilia Zebrowska is a children's book author and illustrator. She lives with her family in London. This is her third book for Creative Editions, after 2021's Ready or Not, Here I Come!

Susan Reagan earned her degree from the Columbus College of Art and Design. With previous experience in greeting cards, surface designs, and picture books, Susan's Creative Editions titles include You and Me and Lights Out. A lifelong Ohio resident, Susan lives in Cleveland with her husband and two dogs.

Mother Winter

Join Mother Winter for a meandering walk “on the longest cold night” to experience chill winds, icy ponds, white snowdrifts, and other quiet wonders of the winter season. James Christopher Carroll’s poetic incantation is a reminder to savor the special qualities winter brings.

James Christopher Carroll is an author, illustrator, and graphic designer whose recent picture books with Creative Editions include A Song and The World Below the Brine. He lives with his family in upstate New York.

Sashiko

During Japan’s Edo period, a style of needlework was born from a need to make fishermen’s clothing stronger and warmer. The “little stabs” of running stitches known as sashiko soon became an art form, inspiring this tale told from the perspective of a child who witnesses her mother stitch love and protection “into cloth as blue as the summer sea.”

Barbara Ciletti is an award-winning publishing professional who is passionate about language, literacy, and book designs. She has authored more than 25 books for adults and children. In 2021, her title The Tiny Giant was honored with a silver medal from the IBPA Benjamin Franklin Awards in the children’s picture book category.

Maria Cristina Pritelli is an internationally recognized children’s book illustrator whose recent works for Creative Editions include A Wish Is a Seed, Seaside Lullaby, and The Million Stories of Marco Polo. She lives with her family in Italy.

A Song for the Cosmos

Blues guitarist Blind Willie Johnson led a hardscrabble life, but in 1977, NASA’s Voyager spacecrafts were launched into space, each carrying a golden record to introduce planet Earth to the cosmos, and his song “Dark Was the Night, Cold Was the Ground” became the defining anthem. Jan Lower and Gary Kelle craft a tale with elements of Johnson’s biography with an account of how a team of astrophysicists, writers, and artists created the golden record.

Jan Lower is a graduate of the Vermont College of Fine Arts. She lives with her family in Maryland, just outside Washington, D.C. This is her first book for Creative Editions.

Gary Kelley is an award-winning illustrator. His books include Next Year, Harlem Hellfighters, and Virginia Was a Spy, all published by Creative Editions. He lives in Cedar Falls, Iowa.
