

WINTER UPDATE from CDK Stone

As the cooler temperatures continue it's a great time to park up beside the fire and check out the stone on our brand new website, featuring a live slab gallery with hi-res images of all of our Natural Stone Slabs and Neolith.

Check it out at: www.cdkstone.co.nz

What would an update be without some images of gorgeous new materials that we've just or about to land.

We have seen unprecedented demand for these materials so definitely move fast to secure your stock!

CALACATTA VIOLA

Current crowd favorite Calacatta Viola leads the way with a mix between contemporary Italian white marble style with gorgeous burgundy tones.

This material offers amazing warmth and opulence, and with the slightly textured finish will constantly have you wanting to reach out and touch it..
