Spring is in the air!

The days are getting lighter and longer, which means embracing the outdoors again and dressing for easier, breezier months ahead. With this in mind, we've gone big on layers this season – discover our new quilted Bella collection and Sadie wax jackets to take you from the stables to the station. Or, for a more polished affair, look no further than our Ada or Sienna Capes.

With a new year of events clocking up on the calendar, it's time to get race-day ready and, whatever look you're coveting, Country & Town House's Fashion Director and top stylist Nicole Smallwood is here to help.

FREE

Get ready for race day

Whether it's Royal Ascot, Henley Regatta or your best friend's wedding, take inspiration for the summer season from Fashion Director Nicole Smallwood's style advice

MEET NICOLE

Nicole Smallwood is Fashion Director at Country & Town House Magazine, she's also a freelance fashion stylist, art director and brand consultant.

Nicole, what was your inspiration for this shoot?

'At the beginning, I wanted to create Fairfax & Favor's own style guide, so it's loosely based around Ascot and the rules for getting into the enclosures.'

In these outfits, there's a range of fabrics and textures...

'Yes, you wouldn't necessarily think about sequins for race days, but the sequin dress from Emilia Wickstead is very wearable [p.19]. I love playing with textures, so I like the sequins with the boucle of this great Fairfax & Favor Esme jacket. And when the sun shines, sequins look amazing.'

Tips if a dress code is required?

'Looks four and five were planned with the Royal Enclosure in mind. Ladies are required to wear a jacket or pashmina, as well as a hat with a diameter greater than four inches – which the hat in look four definitely is!'

Do you have a favourite look from the shoot?

'Looks four, five or six, but I think look four is my favourite!'

What's a good approach when shopping event wear?

'We're shopping less for trends and more for premium purchases that we'll have for longer. You can also rent outfits or buy second hand, and you can reinvent any of these looks and make them your own with accessories.'

For events, which bag would you suggest?

'Who doesn't love a crossbody bag?! The Finsbury is gorgeous and I like that the chain strap can be taken off. As ladies, we always go for safe black, but this Stone shade is light for summer with a great tassel (see look 7). This will look lovely in warmer weather. It's also perfect for travel.'

What tips do you have for planning looks?

'Brits can be quite safe but it's good to express yourself. The footwear you wear, the clothes you choose, they're all part of you. Whether it's the races, a friend's garden party or the polo, get ready and have fun.'

Best approach if you're new to wearing hats?

'Try a lot on! Go somewhere like Awon Golding or Lock & Co.

The hat in look two is an Awon hat, I love her colour, shape and traditional style and the net has stars on it! She's a genius, as is Victoria Grant (look 4). Also, Emily London (look 6) has done a range with Karen Millen.'

What's your advice for getting ready for a special event?

'Dress to your figure shape and don't be a slave to fashion. As you get to know your figure, you'll find the confidence to try new things on and appreciate if they don't work.'

Who does race and event dressing well?

'Zara Tindall always look great. She wears a lot of belted coats and trouser suits, which look chic on her. And I love how style-wise Kate Middleton and Meghan Markle have stayed true to their wedding dress designers.'

With the rural vogue scene, which are the occasions to dress up for?

'Ascot, Henley and Wimbledon. For some events, it depends whether you can get a ticket. At the races, I think you see that different age groups will be in different areas. And for the Royal Box, you have to be invited. So younger people will probably be in The Village, but there is always something for everyone!'

1. Chic from head to toe

NS: 'This look has quite a Cheltenham vibe; a jumpsuit, chic tailored jacket with quilted velvet York heels. The headband is a great hat alternative.'

Victoria Jacket
Biscuit Wool £345;
Langham Clutch
Melon Suede £235;
Quilted York Heel
Navy Velvet £245

2. Go back to black

NS: 'This simple and striking monochromatic look pairs the Finsbury clutch with Sorrento wedge and a race-day ready hat.'

LEFT
 Finsbury Clutch Stone Suede £235;
 Sorrento Wedge Black Suede £185

RIGHT
 Her: Esme Jacket Ecru Boucle £295; Finsbury Clutch Navy Suede £235; Sorrento Wedge Tan/Navy Suede £185
 Him: Chelsea Boot Pine Green Suede £215

3. Be confident with colour

NS: 'The Sorrento wedge and Finsbury clutch add to this dress and chic Esme jacket. For men wearing a suit, these pine green Chelsea boots accentuate the jacket and add character.'

4. Perfect pairings

NS: 'This is such an elegant look! The hat is see-through so it doesn't detract from the rest of the outfit. The Newbury heel is a matching tan suede, so the Mini Belmont bag doesn't feel out on a limb.'

Mini Belmont Handbag
Tan Suede £275;
Newbury Heel Tan
Suede £245

Esme Jacket Navy
Boucle £295; Loxley
Crossbody Bag Stone
Leather £325

5. It's time to shine

NS: 'This sequin dress (from Emilia Wickstead) looks lovely with the navy Esme boucle jacket. It's a demure shape and it allows the Loxley bag to sing.'

LEFT:

Beatrice Blazer

Leather £180

Her: Finsbury
Crossbody Bag

6. Blazer trail

NS: 'A tulle skirt could be a real Sarah Jessica Parker moment! It looks great with the Beatrice blazer. The Langham clutch or Mini Belmont bag would also work well. The hat and Newbury heels finish the look!'

7. Think pink

NS: 'I've worn pink to the races before and I based this look on how it made me feel! This dress style is great for summer occasions. And the Finsbury bag is ideal for events throughout the season.'

Summer schedule

MARK YOUR CALENDARS WITH THIS SEASON'S MAIN EVENTS

May

Be sure to visit our stands at the events we're attending this year – see our Events page online or scan this QR code for details

Badminton Horse Trials

8-12 May | Badminton Estate, South Gloucestershire

Kick off the season in style with one of the most exciting and prestigious equestrian events in the world. This is the toughest of trials for even the top riders. Glamp in this stunning historical setting and enjoy exquisite hospitality and 500+ trade stands.

RHS Chelsea Flower Show

21-25 May | Royal Hospital Road, Chelsea

Discover the latest gardening trends and soak up the sun surrounded by these spectacular displays. This year's show promises to be the most sustainable yet so expect eco-friendly inspiration for greener gardens. You'll leave brimming with ideas – and no doubt horticultural gifts!

Suffolk Show

29-30 May | Trinity Park, Ipswich

Suffolk's annual two-day event is a unique celebration of local food, farming and rural life. With equine and livestock competitions, family entertainment and an Adnams beach-themed bar, you're sure to have a wonderful day out!

June

Royal Cornwall Show

6-8 June | Royal Cornwall Events Centre, Wadebridge

With Cornwall's enviable resources, it's no surprise that this agricultural event showcases some of the country's finest food and drink. Meet the producers and sample the wares before hitting the Main Ring for edge-of-your-seat entertainment.

Stylist tips on getting race-day ready, page 14

Royal Ascot

18-22 June | Ascot, Berkshire

Sip Champagne, cheer from across the track or sing around the bandstand during a quintessentially English day out. Royal Ascot is a social-calendar highlight, known for celebrating the very best of everything – horse racing, hospitality and (of course) style. Now to decide... hat, headpiece or fascinator?!

Royal Highland Show

20-23 June | Royal Highland Centre, Edinburgh

Dating back to 1822, this annual agricultural show has become a world-class event, celebrating its largest-ever attendance last year. Little wonder, as it offers something for everyone – show jumping, celebrity-chef demonstrations, livestock judging and the Golden Shears sheep-shearing championships.

July

Wimbledon

1-14 July | The All England Club, Wimbledon

Visit the home of British tennis for a glamorous, Grand Slam day out. Whether you're enjoying strawberries and cream on Murray Mound or rubbing shoulders with celebrities at Centre Court, nothing screams 'Summer!' like Wimbledon.

Henley Royal Regatta

2-7 July | Henley-on-Thames, Oxfordshire

More than 300,000 spectators head to this elite sporting competition and with good reason – it's the most prestigious regatta in the world with a whopping 300 races across six days. Pack a picnic or enjoy the award-winning hospitality packages and revel in the glorious riverside atmosphere.

Great Yorkshire Show

9-12 July | Great Yorkshire Showground, Harrogate

This iconic four-day event will celebrate its 165th year and has quite the itinerary planned. Expect national breed shows, guest talks, a children's discovery zone and even an exciting stunt event – all celebrating farming, food and British countryside.

The Game Fair

26-28 July | Blenheim Palace, Oxfordshire

If you're passionate about countryside pursuits, this is your summer festival. You'll find fly fishing, clay shooting, working dogs and wild food events, all within the grounds of beautiful Blenheim Palace. Round up some friends and make a mini-break of it at the glampsite, complete with Moose Bar. Cheers!

Pop into our stand at The Game Fair for a glass of bubbly

August onwards

NICO MORGAN MEDIA

Burghley Horse Trials never disappoints!

Defender Burghley Horse Trials

5-8 September | Burghley House, Lincolnshire

What better way to see out summer than at an exhilarating three-day equestrian event with world-renowned shopping avenues in a stunning location? Extras include premium picnic hampers from Michelin-starred chef Tommy Banks and Burghley Boutique yurts with luxury sheets and big breakfasts.

Horse Of The Year Show

9-13 October | NEC Birmingham

This year marks the historic 75th anniversary of this epic end-of-the-season event, which sees a total transformation of the exhibition centre and welcomes more than 60,000 spectators over five days. Check out the range of VIP experiences so you can sit back, dine in style and enjoy the show.

The November Meeting

15-17 November | Cheltenham Racecourse

The notorious November Meeting returns to Cheltenham Racecourse, home of jump racing, and it's always an unmissable three-day event of live entertainment and family fun. Shop till you drop, enjoy a Guinness and cheer on the fierce competitors amid the Cotswold countryside.
