FAQS

Q: Will my card be charged right away?

A: No, your card will not be charged until this order has been approved and the transaction confirmed between the client and Junbi.

Q: Will the drinks taste the same as when in the store?

A: We can guarantee that the drinks are made fresh to order close to the pick up/delivery time.

Depending on delivery time (distance and/or traffic) and if there is a delay in pick up, the ice may melt a bit in the drinks and if boba is chosen as an add-on, it may not be the same as when consumed straight away.

However, the drinks will still be delicious, refreshing, and made with the utmost care.

SIGNATURE

Signature is required to validate this order. This does not mean the order has been confirmed. Client will only be charged once the order has been confirmed. Signing this confirms that client is aware the drink quality may vary from standard during transportation or if client does not come to pick up at promised time. Signing this confirms that client understands order amount is price per drink and includes an additional 20% service charge.
