WEARING THE SMARTWATCH

As with all wearable devices, some users may have skin sensitivities that are irritated by wearing the watchband for extended periods. Irritation may occur from moisture, sweat, soap or other irritants that get caught between the band and the skin. If irritation occurs, remove the watchband. It is not recommended to wear the watchband to bed at night or for extended periods. Always keep your wrist and the watchband dry and clean. To clean the band, wipe it off regularly with a damp cloth and dry thoroughly.

Avoid wearing the watchband too tightly, which is also may contribute to skin irritation. The band should not be too loose so that it does not stay in place properly, but it should also not be so tight that is uncomfortable to wear. If you notice any redness or swelling or other skin irritation, remove the watchband and consult a doctor if necessary.

If you do find that your skin is sensitive to the watchband, it is recommended you use the included clip/stand to play with the L.O.L. Surprise!™ Smartwatch & Camera 2.0.

In addition to wearing the L.O.L. Surprise!™ Smartwatch & Camera 2.0 on your wrist, you can use the included clip/stand to attach it to your clothing or use it as a display stand on a table. The smartwatch will still count your activity, steps, and motion if you clip it to your clothing, but will not track activity if used as a stand. For the most accurate activity tracking, wear the device on your wrist or clipped onto your waistband.

TIP: For both the watchband and the clip/stand, make sure the device's arms and legs are able to move in and out of the casing. Ensure a proper fit before use.
