We source our product from countries such as India, Indonesia, Thailand, China, Madagascar, Turkey, Spain, Peru, Guatemala, and more. At Rehan Spices, we understand how important quality is for our customers and their end product. Where often our competitors will compromise quality for the price, Rehan Spices will never compromise when it comes to quality. That's why all of our products are inspected once they arrive at our facility in South El Monte, California, where we make sure our quality doesn't just meet our customer's needs but exceeds it.
