

Magnus - Media Unit

The Magnus Media Unit's flawless design is intended for comfortable living, with dimensions offering the ideal height for your TV that works perfectly once you're settled onto your sofa. And it's versatile: reversible white and grey doors bring a touch of color to the classic American oak frame, or you can choose to turn them around for the seamless look of a complete oak theme.

The two sliding-door cabinets and classic drawers are spacious enough to house all the essentials that come with home entertainment, while maintaining an effortless tranquility with two pre-drilled holes on the back to keep cables in line.
