

facebook live: 4.05.17 Bollywood

Kate and Janice had so much fun doing Bollywood, a design by Brittany Ketcham-Roney, and it seemed like our viewers also had a great time.

We had more than 4,000 tuning in to learn how to macramé with Chinese Knotting Cord and how to jazz up this design with focal-point Bollywood bracelet.

Now that you've watched the episode, here are our project notes about a few things we featured and what was discussed:

Bollywood by Brittany Ketcham-Roney

Be sure to see all the gorgeous designs and watch Brittany's video where she takes you through step-by-step how to create using Chinese Knotting Cord and seed beads.

  - How to Macramé

Janice palettes from one of her favorite books, Tricia Guild on Color.

The ingredients she shared:

Bubble Gum, Coral, Sea Green, Williamsburg, Peacock
Seed Beads (L to R)

6-155FR Transparent Pink AB

8-136FR Matte Transparent Yellow AB

8-143FR Matte Transparent Chartreuse AB

6-152FR Matte Transparent Grey AB

Kate shows us how to adapt Bollywood to incorporate a centerpiece and a clasp. Many viewers watching live seemed to love this new design concept and commented how great it looks mixed in to Bollywood.
