A friend gave me a gift of an Intuitive Guidance reading with Leslie. Redeeming this gift has been like the parting of the Red Sea. I was feeling caught between two worlds—the old which felt oppressive but familiar, and a new which felt full of promise and excitement yet scared me to death. Leslie's gentle guidance was a loud vote for the longings of my soul. Thanks to her I have taken concrete steps that support the realization of my heart's desire. Hope has replaced the irritability and stagnation I have felt because I was too afraid to follow my dreams. If you need a good shot of energy toward the fulfillment of your cherished desires, give her a call. I'm awfully glad I did. —Sarah, Brunswick, Maine

"I Love Me" is soooo the magic mantra for me! I have found myself in moments of self sabotage and halted it in its tracks with this magic mantra — and voila! What I desire from a place of gratitude as if it already were, starts to manifest before my very eyes. I have seen some major shifts in opportunities that have come available. Finances, creativity, relationships: from friends, to heart interests, and most of all to myself and my creator! I am truly seeing the benefits of what happens when I honor myself and do what I need to do. I've started Yoga again, gotten job offers, have been gifted the items I have desired from the universe or those items I desired have been on sale! Life is in the flow and I know its only going to get better! Thank you dear one! Namaste and thank you for seeing the light in you as the light in me and vice versa!

There is no doubt in my mind that Leslie was sent to me through divine guidance, at a time when I needed her most. I had been feeling completely overwhelmed, anxious and frustrated with trying to balance a career, a home, a husband, and a toddler... without losing a sense of self. It seemed like there was never enough time in the day, and I constantly felt tired and grouchy, not able to be my "highest self" or live to my full potential, as a wife and mother especially. — In the first few minutes of our session, I felt an immediate sense of peace and well-being. Leslie's warmth, guidance and unconditional love felt like a warm embrace... It was a wonderful hour of meditation and relaxation, while at the same time full of eye-opening revelation. I felt like I reclaimed my "higher self" - something that had never truly been gone, but had been dormant. I felt strong, yet soft; powerful, yet relaxed; determined to stay on the right path, yet willing to go with the flow. I felt like "me" again!" — Karen, Southern California

I was really excited to have an intuitive reading with Leslie Montana. She reminded me in a deep way of things I already know, but sometimes forget, like the power of love and self compassion. Her reading helped me remember and feel more connected to my true nature as a divine being. I was especially delighted with her guidance regarding clearing my physical space. This was a huge help to me, because I had been hanging on to things that had belonged to my grandmother. Without even seeing my space she said, "No one is going to care if you get rid of that old stuff." How did she know that I had all this stuff that was weighing me down?? I felt a false obligation to keep these things even though these objects did not reflect anything about me. I hired a Feng Shui expert after my session with Leslie and was told the same thing in different words. I got rid of tons of old stuff and as a result I feel freer and lighter and I have experienced movement in all levels of my life — physically, emotionally, spiritually and mentally. Leslie's words were just what I needed to help me move forward and several of the "stuck" places. — Thank you so much for your wisdom. You are truly intuitive and this has helped me a great deal. — Donna, Dana Point, California
