

Baby Wearing Safety

We hope both you & your little one love your Joey Baby Carrier and enjoy a beautiful baby wearing journey together.

Please always make sure to baby wear correctly and safely. Check your baby's airways are clear, they are seated in a deep squat position, close enough to kiss and a supported back.

Please visit our website for full safety + guidelines.

www.joeymama.com.au

Rider Baby Carrier Instruction Guide

Front Chest Facing Carry Instructions

from 5.5kg (until 6 months)

Place the main band around your waist, press the buckle together & ensure it is clipped correctly.

Once main buckle is secured correctly, pull strap to tighten.

Put one arm through the first shoulder strap, then place your baby in, making sure you support them.

Once your baby is positioned correctly put your arm through the second shoulder strap, still supporting your baby.

Reach behind and press the shoulder buckle together and ensure it is clipped correctly.

Once shoulder buckle is secured correctly, pull strap to tighten.

Place the main band around your waist, press the buckle together & ensure it is clipped correctly.

Once main buckle is secured correctly, pull strap to tighten.

Position your baby correctly, forward facing.

Place the main band around your waist, press the buckle together & ensure it is clipped correctly.

Once main buckle is secured correctly, pull strap to tighten.

Position your baby correctly, on your hip making sure the button is on the widest setting for this carry position.

Once your baby is positioned correctly put your arm through the second shoulder strap, still supporting your baby.

Reach behind and press the shoulder buckle together and ensure it is clipped correctly.

Once shoulder buckle is secured correctly, pull strap to tighten.

Pull the first strap up and over your shoulder, while still supporting your baby.

Pull the second shoulder strap up and over, while still supporting your baby.

Reach behind and press the shoulder buckle together and ensure it is clipped correctly.

Carefully and slowly manoeuvre them around towards your back while still supporting them.

Reach one arm back and through the first shoulder strap, while still carefully supporting your baby.

When ready, carefully put your second arm through the next shoulder strap.

Once both buckles are secure & firm, pull both arm straps to tighten.

When baby is asleep, you can support their head with the shade cover, this clips on to shoulder straps.

Make sure the button is on the widest setting for this carry position.

Once shoulder buckle is secured correctly, pull strap to tighten.

Once both buckles are secure & firm, pull both arm straps to tighten.

Make sure the button is on the narrow setting for this carry position.

Press the shoulder buckle together and ensure it is clipped correctly.

Once shoulder buckle is secured correctly, pull strap to tighten.

Once both buckles are secure & firm, pull both arm straps to tighten.