

Delock Coiled Cable 6.35 mm 2 pin Mono Jack male to Mono Jack male angled 2 m black

Description

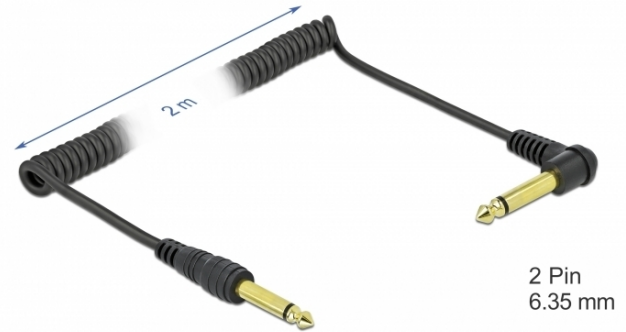

This mono jack cable by Delock enables the connection of devices with a 6.35 mm mono jack interface. Due to its quality it is especially suitable as an instrument cable.

Easy handling

Furthermore one of the mono jack connector is angled, in case the existing mono jack female port is difficult to access.

Coiled Cable

The coiled cable can be stored easily and does not take too much space compared to common cables.
