

McCORKINDALE

love seafood.

New Zealand is famous for beautiful wild coasts, crystal clear water teeming with seafood and for intense, vibrant wines. love seafood. is an innovative blend by internationally renowned winemaker Alan McCorkindale that beautifully complements seafood dishes.

Hand harvested from selected rows in vineyards located in Central Otago's Felton Road, Omihi Road in the Waipara Valley and Marlborough's Dog Point Road, love seafood. is an exciting blend of Viognier, Pinot Gris, Gewürztraminer and Chardonnay grapes.

Pure, aromatic flavours of stone fruits, white flowers, tropical fruits and exotic spices dance across a clean seamless palate: dry and elegant, lively, with crisp acidity, minerality and texture.

Exquisite with every kind of seafood. Experience love seafood. with fresh panfried fish, seafood pasta and any shellfish.

Accolades include gold medal and winner of the Successful Innovation Award, 2011 Napa Valley Wine Label Design Competition, silver medal, New Zealand International Wine Show 2012.

love seafood, love wine.
