

Luxury Garage Sale - started as a pop-up shop for ladies high-end consignment, and now has a permanent location for their boutique as well as an online store where they carry everything from classic staples to on-trend must-haves. In addition, co-owners, Brielle Buchberg and Lindsay Segel willingly visit a client's home and then remove, inventory and sell unwanted items-with prices being negotiated during the closet editing. This store is a treasure-hunter's dream come true.
