Fortune favors the bold. Our new Elite Collection of oak engineered hardwood features extravagantly wide, 9-½” boards; including mostly full length planks measuring over 7’. Taking more than 144 hours of processing; the each plank in the Elite Collection undergoes a rigorous selection, manual sanding and reactive staining process to achieve the desired texture and color. Boasting some of the widest widths available; the Elite collection is uniquely designed for its high-end appeal -- best suited for the most luxurious of luxury homes.
