ABOUT US

Source Direct Inc, established in 2000 with many years of industry expertise, is a leading importer of both stock and customized packaging products. Our USA headquarters is strategically located in New Jersey, serving a diverse clientele that includes distributors, wholesalers, supermarkets, convenience store distributors, importers, restaurant chains and other high volume buyers.

By overseeing the entire production platform, we maintain strict control over product quality and processes. This approach enables us to drive innovation, identify synergies, embrace new operating methods, and optimize time and costs.

Rest assured, our commitment is unwavering when it comes to meeting the most exacting standards for packaging. Whether you're a new rapidly growing business or an established entity, our pricing, quality, and service stand out. Our mission is centered on providing customers with exceptional quality, an extensive product selection and unparalleled customer service.

At Source Direct Inc., we firmly believe that exemplary service lies in meticulous attention to details, ensuring our customers enjoy peace of mind. We don't just consider our clients as transactions, we view them as long term partners, committed to surpassing their expectations and delivering each order with paramount accuracy.
