SWAN COACH HOUSE GIFT SHOP

Although not an outdoor shopping destination, this gem is located on the grounds of Atlanta History Center, and you can indeed stroll outdoors through the beautiful wooded gardens to get there. Well-known to Atlanta shoppers and located in a charming historical building, the Swan Coach House is a popular dining destination as well as a beautiful venue for special events. Also on the premises are a wellcurated gift shop and a cutting edge art gallery. In the gift shop, find home décor, women's apparel, merchandise for men, seasonal gifts and iewelry. If it's one-of-a-kind gifts you seek, be sure to look for items in the Swan's Nest, where you'll find Limoges boxes with swans on top, swan ornaments and swan place cards and notecards. If you go for lunch, which we highly recommend, we suggest the crab cakes.

Location: 3130 Slaton Drive NW, just off West Paces Ferry Road in Buckhead www.swancoachhouse.com

THREE ITEMS TO PICK UP

There are plenty of Atlantamade businesses that sell unique items to take home. Here are a few picks.

OKABASHI AND OKA-B SHOES

How many times have you chosen to walk barefoot over stuffing your feet into sub-par shoes? These sustainable. eco-friendly and affordable shoes are what your feet have been waiting for. In 1984, this Buford, Ga.-based company set out to make a comfortable, yet stylish pair of sandals. Each pair of shoes has an active arch support and massage heads built into the material. Okahashi's line of flip flops and sandals raise the bar for comfy shoes, and Oka-B shoes include ballet flats and dressy sandals. These handcrafted gems can be found, among other places, at Intercontinental Hotel Buckhead Atlanta, Atlanta Marriott Marguis and Omni Hotel Gift Shop. www.okabashi.com / www.oka-b.com

GEORGIA GRINDERS NUT BUTTERS
