Why Belly Bands?

Spot Marking

If your customer’s young stud is marking his territory in their house, let us help your customers take back control. Our washable belly bands are sure to protect their floors, couch, furniture legs, and anything else their furbaby tries to claim.

Excitement Urination

If your customer’s pup gets just a wee bit excited when he sees his owner, their friends, or family, offer our washable belly bands to end the worry and the mess!

Incontinence Issues

If an senior pup is unfortunately losing bladder control, don’t let customers become too discouraged or let the pup’s old age become an issue. Sell our washable belly bands to stop the leak when a customer’s pup can’t.

Travel

If your customer’s pup is going to need to hold it an abnormally long time, like on an airplane or a long road trip, sell our washable belly bands to prevent accidents from turning into messes.
