

Delivery time

Our supply chain is working extremely hard to try and get your orders to you. Usually, we ship the next business day of your purchase. This expected transit time applies unless otherwise noted:

Standard USA: 4-14 business days
Worldwide: up to 21 business days
(these delays are possible due to influx of parcels worldwide and Covid 19 social distancing regulations)

Expedited 2 to 6 business days after shipping

We will ensure that we provide you with online tracking, you can keep track of your delivery using online tracking facility which can be accessed from the dispatch email we will send you. If you don't receive the tracking email in 24 hours after placing the order, please contact support@timeformachine.com

Contactless deliveries

Our post/courier services are offering contactless No-touch No-sign Delivery, which allows you to get your packages with minimum contact. All drivers strictly adhere to the social distance advice and wash their hands frequently and thoroughly as well as use alcohol-based hand sanitisers.
