

PORTFOLIO

F/STOP

82 | M-A "TITANIUM"

Made for eternity: the Leica M-A "Titanium" set operates without a power source – hence the absence of a built-in light meter. The exquisite Apo-Summicron-M 50 f/2 is part of the special-edition set

86 | NEW SL FIRMWARE

Leica's latest firmware updates introduce new features to the SL system, and enable the Leica SL2-S to output 12-bit raw videos to external recorders

90 | MOON GALLERY

A trip to the stars: Jamal Ageli uses both documentary and artistic approaches to capture the night sky. His Cosmic Tree artwork is part of the space-bound Moon Gallery project

The Leica M-A "Titanium" is limited to just 250 sets worldwide

Lys Arango: from her Until the Corn Grows Back series

Raymond Depardon

6 | LEICA CLASSIC

Best wishes for a Happy 80th Birthday!
LFI presents a selection from the body of work by the French reporter, chronicler and story-teller

Lys Arango

26 | UNTIL THE CORN GROWS BACK

Chronic malnourishment defines everyday life in many Mayan villages in the Highlands of Guatemala. Arango focuses on the subject of hunger

Adam Hinton

42 | LOOKING BACK

In 1990, shortly before the end of the USSR, the photographer met the Slakar family, and captured poignant images of their life in Ukraine

Alessia Rollo

58 | AN ENDLESS DAY

The city is expanding and looking enchanting as it does so: magical images of the genesis of a city district on the outskirts of Rennes in Brittany

Pablo Larraín

70 | DIANA & JACKIE

Always behind the camera: Pablo Larraín is not only the director of the biographic films Jackie and Spencer – he is also the on-set photographer

LIGHTBOX

96 | LFI.GALLERY

Over 40 000 photographers have presented more than 1.5 million pictures in the LFI Gallery. This issue includes a refugee cat and the director John Waters
