REFLECTING ON ART

PAINTINGS - PHOTOGRAPHS - DRAWINGS - PRINTS - SCUPLTURES

COLOR

The colors selected by an artist has the ability to capture the eye and draw you in based on:

- The depth of, or absence of, color used.
- It reflects your preferred color pallet.
- Or simply, it matches the space the artwork would be displayed.

COMPOSITION

In addition to color, how each element of the artwork is arranged reflects the quality of the piece & abilities of the artist.

- The use of light.
- The position of the subject matter.
- Shape and proportions.
- Balance and harmony between elements.
- Use of negative space.
- Viewer's perspective.

STYLE

An artist has many choices to consider when creating a piece of artwork. Their decisions reflect the intended style - resulting from...

- The images that are portrayed and how they are depicted (abstract, realistic, or stylized).
- Aesthetics of the piece.
- Emotions expressed - or thoughts the piece evokes.

STORY

Making art is a personal process. Sometimes it is the artist's story or how and why they composed the artwork that a buyer falls in love with.

- Does the artist's story resonate with you?
- Do you respect their artistic vision, skills and abilities?
- Does the piece spark a cherished memory?
