Type Kitchen Roll Holder

Colours Black

With a raw industrial feel, Grab combines leather, oak and concrete and celebrates the delicate interplay between these elements.

A solid concrete base gives Grab a weighty feel which keeps it steady on the table. That adds a strong sense of its Nordic design heritage with a rough stone like expression.

Even when the kitchen roll itself is all gone, Grab makes an eye catching design piece standing alone on the table.

Designed for functionality and with a focus on details, Grab has been stripped down to its essential parts with no extra superfluous decorations, resulting in a raw and exciting object.
