Health Begins In The Colon

ColonCare™ Ultimate Colon Protection is a holistic formula designed to promote colon health. It contains ColonGuard™ Proprietary Blend, a blend of scientifically tested ingredients that provide essential nutrients for individuals to cope with persistent changes in bowel habits and bloating. ColonCare™ further protects colon cells against oxidative stress with Soy Saponin and maintains the balance of beneficial intestinal bacteria in the gut with Prebiotic.

The Colon

The colon includes the ascending colon, cecum, transverse colon, descending colon, sigmoid colon, and rectum.

It is an organ in the part of digestive system in the human body. The digestive system is a group of organs that allow us to eat and to use the food we eat to fuel our bodies.

Symptoms of Colon Cancer

Colorectal cancer might not cause symptoms right away, but if it does, it may cause a change in bowel habit.

Change in bowel habit gave a colorectal cancer prevalence:

Age Group	Colon Cancer Prevalence
< 55 years old	16%
≥ 55 years old	30%

Ingredients

ColonGuard™ Proprietary Blend (Cactus Extract & Ellagic Acid)

Cactus Extract contains health-promoting compounds like flavonoids. It exerts protective effects on colon cells. Ellagic acid is known for its antioxidant properties. Therefore, it assists in protecting the body against free radicals.

Soy Saponin

Soya saponin is a natural active substance of leguminous plant, which could protect colon cell and regulate immune function.

Prebiotic (Inulin)

Inulin is a soluble fibre that nourishes gut microbes, promote regular and healthy gut movement.
