

IMPERMANENCE

CHRISTÈLE JACQUEMIN

About the inspiration

The IMPERMANENCE collection is a series of photographs I took in Jin Ze, a village on the outskirts of Shanghai (China), where I stayed for a month in an artist residency.

It was a month of pure happiness and well-being to wander in the early morning along the canals which traversed this village still preserved from tourism.

Far from my bearings, I surrender to these forces that animate
the space in all harmony.

I feel it. Something new is happening.
The invisible is at work.
Change, this fruitful source of life.

Back from China,
I translated into scent
the feelings of harmony and tranquility
that I felt during this stay.
