The Multipurpose Salve

"The one thing that is hindering my hot girl fall? Dryness. My cuticles, knuckles, ankles and lips are flaking more than a three-day-old croissant—and my daily moisturizer just ain't cutting it. Good thing I have a little jar of this restorative balm on my bathroom shelf. Packed with mango butter, bergamot and black spruce, this moisturizing salve isn't too waxy or greasy—it's just the right amount of quenching for my thirsty lil' limbs." — Victoria, senior writer
