OUR PARTNERSHIPS ARTWINERY

Bubbles...Naturally. It's the first thing that comes to mind when experiencing Artwinery's creations. From the selection of the finest grapes to going mind-blowing 236 feet underground to ensure the best environment for superior winemaking - it speaks to unparalleled, natural quality. The winery's 100 acres located in Southeastern part of Ukraine is mostly in caves 236 deep. These former gypsum mines maintain perfect year-round humidity and temperatures between 57 and 59 degrees, critical to classic sparkling winemaking.

Artwinery crafts its sparkling wines using the original method developed hundreds of years ago in Champagne, France - Methode Traditionnelle - a complex, laborious process. Unlike the accelerated method used for many modern sparkling wines, Prosecco, and Cava, where wine is saturated with carbon dioxide in large tanks for 3 weeks or so, Artwinery's classic Methode Traditionnelle creates carbon dioxide naturally in a sealed bottle, a process taking 9 months to 6 years or more. The art and magic of "capture the sparkle" or prise de mousse infuses the wine with delicate shades of bouquet and taste. Pure artistry in a bottle. Cheers!

MAJESTY IN A BOTTLE / 2014

SOLOKING AGED WHITE BRUT SPARKLING

At 236 feet underground in the world's deepest sparkling winery, crafted by méthode traditionnelle, this Brut is fermented and aged in the bottle for 6 years.

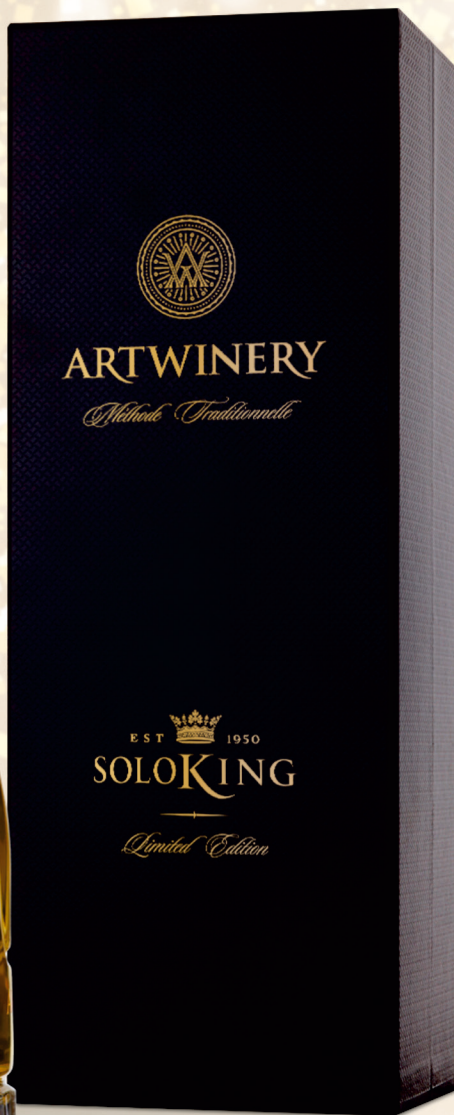

The blend contains Chardonnay (35%), Riesling (30%), Aligote (20%) and Pinot Blanc (15%), with 20% grapes from the exceptional 2013 harvest at Artwinery's own vineyards on the southern coast of the Crimean Peninsula.

For more than 2,500 years Crimea has produced wines so distinctive they've met the lofty standards of Russian Tsars and fetched some of the highest bids ever paid by wine enthusiasts at Sotheby's.

Light straw in color with a thin and steady perlage, Soloking sings with notes of white fruits and flowering trees. The soft, full, and balanced yet delicate mouthfeel lingers in an exquisitely long finish.
