Jampha Tibetan Pharmacy Product Catalog 2023

Who we are

At Jampha, we are dedicated to holistic wellness and health. Rooted in the Tibetan Buddhist Healing Science Sowa Rigpa, our formulas stem from principles of Tibetan medicine that have been cultivated and refined over 2500 years of applied insight. This ancient healing practice relies on the careful use of the highest quality plants and minerals, harnessing nature's bounty to improve lives.

Leading our product development team is an experienced Tibetan Medicine Physician and Sowa Rigpa lineage-holder, the esteemed Amchi Thubten Lekshe. He brings over half a century of experience practicing Tibetan medicine and a focus on maintaining the purity of its sacred lineage. With a vast wealth of insight into how nature's mineral and herbal gifts are designed to enhance the well-being of mind, body, and spirit, Amchi Thubten is Jampha's guiding light.

It is our privilege to serve as a bridge connecting the precious gifts of Tibetan healing wisdom with the Western world. Our mission is to inspire radiance, health, and well-being and foster a sense of presence, activity, and love in your life and the world.

What we do

Our formulas amplify natural medicine's potency by blending traditional medicine's ancient wisdom with modern scientific research and technology. Each remedy is founded in 2500 years of meticulously developed knowledge about plants and minerals and accelerated by contemporary scientific insights and extraction practices. We create advanced expressions of time-proven natural remedies by harmonizing ancient and modern wisdom.

Every formula incorporates Synergy Enhanced Terpenes. Terpenes are specialized plant molecules proven to deliver a wide range of researched health benefits, from boosting immune function to easing anxiety. In Tibetan medicine, terpenes are considered the life force energy of plants, holding infinite combinations of healing support. However, plant terpenes are lost in traditional drying methods and were not included in herbal remedies until now.

Jampha's unique method restores life-force energy to dried botanical remedies by re-infusing them with thoughtfully curated terpenes. This process advances our formulas' healing capacity, enhancing their vigor and vibrancy.

By bridging the gap between ancient formulas and cutting-edge science, we create remedies that address modern health challenges while remaining grounded in centuries-old wisdom.

Our commitment to restoring and revitalizing mind-body-spirit modalities extends beyond advanced plant medicine. We are dedicated to sharing empowering wisdom and knowledge, providing tools and resources for those seeking holistic health solutions and enhanced well-being.

All of our infusions and topicals are made in the US from organic, carefully sourced plants and are third-party tested.

Consultation Services & Professional Support

We are dedicated to supporting practitioners across various modalities who are sharing our products. Highly trained Synergy Enhanced Terpene Infusion (SETI) consultants provide in-depth product support daily through phone, text, or email from 9 AM to 5 PM PST. They are well-versed in our products' optimal uses.

From our company's mission to our formulations, we aim to support our advocates and customers in awakening their inner healing intuition. Our approach is centered on empowerment, providing the necessary knowledge and wisdom to make informed decisions about health and well-being.

We are passionate about making information accessible and sharing the knowledge our team has collectively amassed over several decades. Anyone seeking to understand and benefit from our products can connect with our team for a personalized consultation.

We are here to help you understand the power of Tibetan Medicine, Synergy Enhanced Terpene Infusions, and how they best support your journey to holistic health.

Training

Naturopaths, alternative medicine practitioners, and other established healing modalities operating brick-and-mortar services are eligible for free virtual product training. Training sessions are an opportunity to understand the complete product line in-depth.

In our training you will learn our formulas' nature and uses. This includes their unique properties, benefits, and potential applications. You'll also gain insights into combining formulas harmoniously to establish powerful healing trajectories for patients.

Our teaching methods incorporate a balance of theory and practice, offering insight into the methodology behind the product and how to apply them in real-world scenarios. We aim to give you both the knowledge and practical skills to utilize our products effectively within your own practices.

In our effort to share the transformative benefits, we offer wholesale prices to practitioners.

Rinchen Jewel Pills

Tibetan pills are considered spiritual medicines because prayer is an integral part of their formulation. With traditional pills, Tibetan physicians say special prayers while sustainably collecting the herbs and during the process of crafting the pills. Rinchen pills are charged with spiritual blessings generated by many Tibetan Lamas while being made. In both cases, a high-vibrational spiritual charge is delivered to the person who consumes them.

The extensive formulation process of Authentic Tibetan pills synergistically integrates the healing properties of the six basic tastes, the eight potencies, and the seventeen effects of the herbs, enabling Tibetan supplements to be effective with no side effects. We are honored to offer a selection of traditionally crafted and spiritually charged Tibetan pills.

TESTIMONIAL

Works! Changed my life!

"This is like icy hot and tiger balm on steroids. It works immediately and powerfully and lasts 4-6 hours. I can't leave home without it, I was going to have to retire early because I needed pain meds to drive. Now I drive with manageable pain and no pills."
-Dale C.

TESTIMONIAL

Nothing else has worked, til Relieve

"I just filled a trash can with the old topicals I had used with mixed results. This works every single time. I know this will give me the relief I sometimes need just to get through the day. Very powerful and smells heavenly. I don't leave home without a small tub in my purse." -Kim B.

TESTIMONIAL

Great for scars & wound care

"I am an EMT and on a hike had only this to help keep a wound clean and heal while I walked back 37 miles. I cleaned it and continued to apply and within 4 days it was no longer inflamed or red as the essential oils used in this recipe are very effective for wound care & healing. Thank you for making this!" -Travis C.
