THE CHALLENGE OF COMMITMENT by Ken Weliever. Too often Christians have the mistaken idea that commitment is about going to church every week, singing hymns, listening to a sermon, and giving a token contribution when the plate is passed! Commitment to Christ is more than giving thanks before we eat or daily Bible reading. It goes beyond listening to "religious music" in the place of secular songs and supporting your favorite conservative politician! Real commitment to Christ involves a change in attitude and actions. It's about obedience, self-sacrifice, and personal involvement in the lives of others. It's about getting our hands dirty in service of our Savior! And if that's not enough, Jesus confidently proclaims that His way is the only way! The right way! Maybe it's time for Christians to get radical - not in violent revolution, but in powerful and personal commitment to Christ. Coil bound, 12 chapters, 115 pages, AWB-057-1 $8.99.

"Why can I not forgive myself when I have sinned?" or "What should I do when one loses a loved one to death?" This study seeks to find answers from the Bible to these and other important real life questions. 13 lessons, 53 pages, Workbook, TWB-009-1 $7.99. Teacher's Manual PDF download, $7.99.

ANCIENT CHOICES FOR MODERN DILEMMAS - We live in a world that exposes Christians and their families to contradictory views of ethics, morality and truth, that pumps an overwhelming flood of information and images into our daily lives. The world is changing how we conduct our relationships and challenges the harmony that we desire for our lives. We often find ourselves in a dilemma in which there seems to be no good answers. There are journal type thought questions and exercises throughout. Great for Bible classes as well as personal study. 8.5x11, 101 pages, 13 chapters, Workbook, LWB-004-1 $10.99. It is imperative that they understand how to work together peacefully to encourage and build up men, children, and one another. Authors Cindy DeBerry and Angie Knitta focus on both the harmony that can exist between sisters and the enmity, with the intent to help all women in the Lord to be the best daughters of God they can be. 13 chapters, 88 pages, Workbook, LWB-008-1, $7.99. HEADING FOR HEAVEN - How often do we find ourselves saying, "I'm really at the end of my rope!" How would our lives change if we could manage to climb a little higher instead of barely hanging on? Clinging to the bottom can be exhausting! Jesus said, "I go to prepare a place for you," because He wants to give us rest. So why are we so restless? Is part of the frustration because we know so little about the joys of heaven? Joyce Jamerson believes we can live with more comfort and assurance and change our view of heaven from a vague dream to an obtainable reality! Where are you? Where do you want to be? Soft cover, coil bound, 137 pages, LWB-010, $8.99.

LEARNING TO SING AT MIDNIGHT - Aging is a fact of life. But growing old doesn't mean it's time to shirk our responsibilities to God and stop the work in His kingdom. In Learning to Sing at Midnight, author Joanne Beckley talks of this little written about, but important time in a woman's life. She discusses spiritual strength and wisdom gained through life's experiences. Also discussed are the topics of society and aging, changes and adjustments we face after retirement, plus instruction on how to grow spiritually and the hindrances we will most likely encounter. Learning to Sing at Midnight shows us that although we must grow older, we should be maturing in Christ. 8.5x11, 12 chapters, 76 pages, LWB-003-1, $7.99.

Perfect bound, 13 chapters, 137 pages, B-010, $10.99.

FORGOTTEN WOMANHOOD - Throughout her life, author Joanne Beckley battled for an understanding of what it means to be a woman, as God intended and expects. She went through school absorbing one image of womanhood, was taught another by her mother and grandmother, and preachers taught her yet another. This is a study from the Scriptures to diligently weed out as much confusion as possible, to understand our own motives, attitudes, and pride, and then to replace them with a purity of purpose in serving God as a woman. 13 lessons, 71 pages, B-002, $7.99.

HEADING FOR HARVEST, A Fruit of the Spirit Study - Don't you just love finding succulent unblemished fruit at the grocery? We love it because it's the best it can be. Someone had to plant, prune, and fertilize in order for us to enjoy the harvest. When sin became the norm in Galatia, Paul knew Christians would be influenced and set forth guidelines for continuing growth, developing the fruit of the Spirit. By developing our fruit, we have the ability to be the best of what God wants us to be. By pruning regularly and applying the right fertilizer, we can know more love than we've ever known, more joy than we've ever experienced, and have a peace that puzzles others just by cultivating our fruit. Lonnie Cruse sets out to examine the prayer life of Jesus as well as other Bible heroes and gives consideration to things like what we should be praying for today, making more time for prayer, and how to strengthen our prayer life. Coil binding, 74 pages, 13 lessons, LWB-007, $8.99.

LOOK INTO YOUR HEART - Do you live with confidence and purpose? Or is your heart so crowded with stuff that living with purpose becomes living to survive? God cares about the condition of our hearts. In her special way, Joyce Jamerson weaves her way through many facets of our spiritual hearts in order to weed out the bad and build on the good. An African proverb states: "Lord Jesus, make my heart sit down." Let's calm our hearts and sit down for this study in order to have the heart that is approved by God; to be a woman after God's own heart. Don't be half-hearted! FAMILY LIFE

PARENTING THROUGH THE AGES - Authors Royce and Cindy DeBerry use years of parenting skills and knowledge of the Scriptures to guide us through problem areas. Before retiring in '05, the DeBerrys were special needs foster parents for the state of Indiana for almost twenty years. Royce taught foster parent classes for the state. They consider themselves blessed to have ten children and 21 grandchildren. The purpose of these lessons is to help individuals gain wisdom and knowledge on parenting from our Creator who knows us and our needs. 13 lessons, 79 pages, Workbook, AWB-019-1 $6.99. Teacher's Manual PDF download, AWB-0018-3, $6.99.

LIFESTYLE STEWARDSHIP - While this study is targeted to young adults, who are just starting their careers and developing a stewardship lifestyle, the material is applicable to all ages. After all, the Bible speaks to all of us about our stewardship and "all things that pertain to life and godliness." Stewardship is not something we do, it is the way we are. It involves all of life. It is our approach to living a God-centered life. Stewardship is more, much more than deciding how much to "put in the plate" on Sunday. It has to do with our values. It is about a mind set. It is about doing all that we can with all that we have. Author, Ken Weliever, deals with the three "T's" of stewardship: Your time, your talent, your treasure. Too often we compartmentalize our lives into little boxes—work, home, social, church and country. We think of trying to balance everything and putting a bit of time, talent and treasure into all five. When we change the paradigm then it makes stewardship a lifestyle, instead of some obligation we feel on Sunday morning. 13 lessons, 90 pages, Workbook, AWB-058-1, $7.99. Teacher's Manual PDF download, $7.99.

DYNAMIC DUOS - Strong marriages promote faithful children and active churches. NEW STUDY BY CHAD SYCHTYSZ

ACTS COMMENTARY - By Chad Sychtysz. The Book of Acts provides the historical and theological link between Christ's earthly ministry and the church founded in His name. The inspired record of their work serves as a timeless blueprint for Christian evangelism, conversion, the founding of churches, church work, and the defense of the gospel. Those who diligently follow this blueprint will be sound in who they are and what they do. This commentary has been written to assist not only preachers and teachers but every Christian to this very end. Much effort has been made to provide a straightforward, readable, and explanatory coverage of this sacred work. Acts Commentary is an excellent resource for all who desire to study God's Word in its biblical and historical context. Hardback with dust jacket, 374 pages, B-015, $22.99.

Bible Studies by Chad Sychtysz

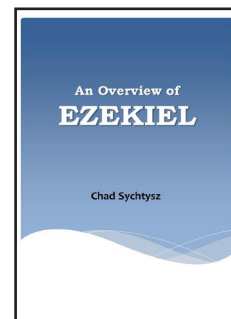

AN OVERVIEW OF ISAIAH - by Chad Sychtysz. Isaiah is easily one of the most significant books of the Old Testament. It provides insight into the nature of God, His dealings with His people, His providential care for His servants, and the kingdom of God under the reign of Messiah. This overview is designed to provide a simplified yet explanatory treatment of the Book of Isaiah. 8.5x11, soft cover, 124 pages, 26 lessons, AWB-080-1, $9.99.

AN OVERVIEW OF JEREMIAH AND LAMENTATIONS - by Chad Sychtysz. God was ready to send His people into captivity, but He wanted Jeremiah to make it unmistakably clear as to why this was going to happen. Instead, it is a clarion call to Christians to separate ourselves from the worldliness that threatens to corrupt our souls and destroy our churches. This workbook is an excellent resource. 8.5x11, soft cover, 125 pgs. AWB-081-1, $9.99.

AN OVERVIEW OF DANIEL- by Chad Sychtysz. Within the Book of Daniel are some of the most difficult-and fascinating-passages ever written. Despite the difficulties of studying this book (both real and imagined), God's purpose through Daniel the prophet and the essential message of this work are resoundingly clear and practical for us today. Daniel provides the critical link between the Babylonian captivity and the future history of God's people. One of the great messages of this book is: God is not only a God of the Jews; He is the Supreme God of all the earth. This message is developed more profoundly in Daniel than in any other Old Testament book. 80 pages, soft cover, spiral bound, 8.5x11, 13 lessons, AWB-078-1, $9.99.

AN OVERVIEW OF EZEKIEL- by Chad Sychtysz. Ezekiel is one of the more difficult books of the Old Testament. It foretells God's judgment upon Jerusalem (Judah) for her sins and also provides glimpses into Israel's spiritual regeneration. It also describes some of the most extraordinary scenes that are found anywhere in Scripture. Ezekiel's message is certainly timeless and necessary for us today. Ezekiel is a book of the certainty of God's promises, whether these are promises of punishment or those of hope and restoration. 95 pages, soft cover, spiral bound, 8.5x11, 24 lessons, AWB-079-1, $9.99.

Pillar of Truth Series
