Dedication)

This book is dedicated to my husband, Jeff. He has always been my biggest supporter. Thank you, Jeff, for believing in me!

And to my Kindred Hearts sisters who received most of the scriptures in this book in the form of a daily scripture text and cheered me on every day with colorful heart emojis!

Charlotte Miles, Mary Thompson and Linda White

Today's Scripture: The Scriptures in this book are grouped together by themes—one theme for each week for an entire year. These themes and Scriptures were chosen to be faith building, encouraging and uplifting.

Prayers and Acts of Service List for Today: Use this section to help keep track of people you want to serve and pray for each day. An act of service could be a phone call, a card, cooking a meal, visiting, etc. A space is provided for you to check when you have accomplished these tasks.

Daily Bible Journaling: Use this section in a way that works best for you. For example, ask yourself (and answer) questions like, "What do I learn about God from this Scripture?", or, "What do I learn about what I need to do from this Scripture?" You can also write praise and thanksgiving to God regarding "Today's Scripture" or use this section to write a Bible verse. Choose a book of the Bible and begin writing a few verses from the book every day and then write out some ways you can apply these verses to your life. I recommend the book of James or the Psalms.

Notes: Make this journal work for you.

- This journal was designed to be a daily journal but if that does not work for you, use it for the number of days a week that works best for you. Maybe you only have time to use the journal on the weekends; or, maybe only on the weekdays.
- Take advantage of the Biblical Examples of Prayers on the following page to give you some suggestions of things to pray for and how to pray.
