The Art of Gifting at Fidenza Village

The magic of Christmas is coming to Fidenza Village with "The Art of Gifting". The campaign celebrates the pleasure of choosing gifts for loved ones in a unique atmosphere with a wide variety of exclusive brands, all while supporting an important charitable cause with Oxfam Italy, the organization engaged in humanitarian and developmental projects in Italy and throughout the world. Up until Christmas, for a nominal fee, guests will be given the opportunity of purchasing a key - a symbolic object that can be used for embellishing Christmas gifts or decorating the tree. The proceeds of these donations will go to Oxfam Italy to assist projects dedicated to asylum seekers travelling to Europe.

Fidenza Village welcomes its guests to this magical atmosphere to enjoy a day of shopping with exceptional savings of up to 70% on the recommended retail price. The experience includes a series of personalized services designed to make gift shopping even more enjoyable, including Personal Stylist services by appointment, the Shopping Express® luxury coach service that connects the centre of Milan to the Village every day of the week, and Hands-Free Shopping, which allows guests to collect their purchases at the end of the day for an effortless shopping experience.
