What the press say

2018

93/100 “Wonderful, intense aromatics of flowers and white spices ... Fleshy, fruity, spicy and delicious. There’s texture to this wine from phenolics and fruit tannins, the acidity pushes these along nicely, but the wine always comes back to the fruit. Nice lengthy finish, balanced and well made.”
- Cameron Douglas MS, www.camdouglasms.com, NZ

18.5/20 “An exquisite, concentrated, intensely aromatic sweet white wine made in the mould of an Alsatian Muscat ... Muscat Petit Grains occupies a few rows of vineyard area at Pegasus Bay winery in North Canterbury and makes this beautifully aromatic wine.”
- Joelle Thomson, Drinksbiz Magazine, NZ

18.5/20 “ ... This Alsatian style Muscat is powerful and opulent with complex interest and a sustained, spice finish.”
- Candice Chow, raymondchanwinereviews.co.nz, NZ

2017

18.5+/20 “ ... This is a rich and lush Muscat with a mouth-filling palate and a complex range of flavours.”
- Candice Chow, raymondchanwinereviews.co.nz, NZ

★★★★★ 94/100 “Richly fruited and engaging ... impressively long and delectable.”
– Sam Kim – Wine Writer, www.wineorbit.co.nz, NZ

94/100 “ ... A delicious wine that coats the palate leaving lasting flavours”
- Cameron Douglas MS, www.camdouglasms.com, NZ

★★★★★ “The powerful 2017 vintage was estate-grown at Waipara and matured for six months in old oak puncheons ... Already delicious”
- Michael Cooper, www.michaelcooper.co.nz, NZ

2016

17.5/20 “ ... ravishingly decadent, very richly textured and unafraid to harness sweetness for intensity ... (an outstanding, superior example and worth seeking out)”
- Stephen Wong MW

★★★★★ “... the lovely 2016 vintage is perfumed and mouthfilling ...”
- Michael Cooper, www.michaelcooper.co.nz, NZ
