

VERGENCE White

What the press say

MK 1

94/100 “A complex nose ... Baking spice and dried herbs blend seamlessly and add very good depth. Layered and very long ...”
– James Suckling Wine Reviews, jamesuckling.com, USA

19-/20 “... lovely intensity and concentration ... unctuous and textural, flows smoothly with positive energy and drive ...”
– Candice Chow, www.raymondchanwinereviews.co.nz, NZ

93/100 “Vergence is a label for experimental wines that involve looking outside the square ... A rich, textural white wine ... A satisfyingly complex and weighty wine.”
– Bob Campbell MW, The Real Review, AUS & NZ

★★★★★ “... concentrated, vigorous wine, poised and youthful, with strong, ripe, peachy, spicy flavours, showing excellent complexity.”
– Michael Cooper, Michael Cooper's Buyer's Guide, NZ

91/100 “A complex bouquet ... Many flavours maketh this wine with a moreish core of fruit, wood spice and waxy citrus fruits finish”
– Cameron Douglas MS, www.camdouglasms.com, NZ

★★★★★ 94/100 “Splendidly complex and engaging ... richly expressed with expansive mouthfeel ... superbly long and delectable”
– Sam Kim, www.wineorbit.co.nz, NZ

2016

★★★★★ “Highly distinctive, ... fragrant, complex bouquet, ... concentrated, ripe, stonefruit flavours, hints of herbs, spices and nuts, and a lasting finish.”
– Michael Cooper, North & South magazine, NZ

★★★★★ 94/100 “... rich texture, expansive mouthfeel and bright acidity, finishing long and attractively savoury.”
– Sam Kim, www.wineorbit.co.nz, NZ

“... rich, spicy, funky core and a long, lip-puckering finish” – Yvonne Lorkin, yvonnelorkin.co.nz, NZ

91/100 “A new and moderately adventurous label from Pegasus Bay that's a blend of semillon aged for more than two years in old barrel with chardonnay, muscat and gewürztraminer. A flavoursome dry white that's richly-textured and quite complex. More savoury or perhaps vinous than fruity. I like it.”
– Bob Campbell MW, bobcampbell.nz, NZ

93/100 “... The palate delivers a supple, complex riot of fruit and bold acidity ... A blend of semillon, chardonnay, muscat and gewurztraminer”
– Nick Stock, jamesuckling.com, USA
