

Twenty-five Years of

Fine Writing Instruments

with Fleetness & Grace!

Retro 1951 has been producing "fine writing instruments with fleetness and grace, desk accessories and other cool stuff" for twenty-five years! We were not alone in our journey though, we have come to know people throughout the world that has made this possible. From our factories that produce the product to the people that ship it, to the warehouse that packages it, to the sales team and reps that share it, to the retailers that sell it and finally to the end consumer that purchases it. Whether it's for themselves or a gift, we hope this gift sparks something amazing within them.

To commemorate the occasion, a special 25th Anniversary Tornado was created with an acid-etched barrel with repeating "25" pattern. It has been plated in a stonewashed pewter finish and complimented with shiny rhodium accents. The top ring has been numbered on top and it comes packaged in a special tube.

Sterling Tornado

Investing in gold and silver is a given, but what about a fine writing pen? A good pen is a low risk investment that will pay dividends over the years to come. This precious Tornado has a .925 sterling silver barrel with line cut accents that has been polished to a high shine and complete with shiny rhodium accents. It is loaded with a ballpoint refill, numbered on the top ring and packaged in a piano lacquer wood box.
