LOCAL FAMILY OWNED CANNABIS RETAILER MT. KUSHMORE OPENS FIRST LOCATION

Calgary, Alta - MT. KUSHMORE is a family owned and operated cannabis retailer located in Crescent Heights (329 11 Avenue N.E). The business was founded by Mishi Shaista, Mohsin Shaista and Ahsen Shaista, three siblings who share a passion for entrepreneurship, the importance of educating the community on safe and secure cannabis consumption methods and giving back. MT. KUSHMORE carries over 20 high-quality, premium cannabis brands that allows consumers to have a custom experience based on their needs. The shop is open Monday through Sunday from 10 a.m. - 10 p.m.

Further solidifying their commitment to the Calgary community, the Shaista family made it a priority to employ builders who had been laid off during COVID-19. This employment opportunity allowed workers to support their families during this difficult time.

“Opening MT. KUSHMORE has shown me how supportive Calgary's small business community is for new Canadians and that anything is possible,” says Mishi Shiasta, Director of Marketing and Brand Specialist. “I had to restart my life here in Calgary and through strength, perseverance and the support from my family we were able to launch a business.”

Born in Dubai, the Shaista family have lived in several different countries before making their home as immigrants in Calgary. They are no strangers to self-made businesses, having operated vehicle dealerships and textile factories around the world. Understanding the diverse needs that can be met through cannabis use is something that the siblings are passionate about.
