Indique Hair launches new program called Indique Bride offering bridal party consultations, bride discounts, and a gift from David Tutera.

NEW YORK, June 25, 2015 /PRNewswire/ – Indique Hair, the top provider of premium hair extensions globally, announces the launch of their new client program Indique Bride. Indique Bride allows future brides and their bridal party to get the ultimate experience with Indique's premium hair extensions. In this program, Indique offers a substantial discount for brides and also gives them a copy of David Tutera's Big White Book of Weddings as a gift for participating. This ongoing program launched on June 23, 2015.

"Today many women are opting for hair extensions to enhance their bridal look . We are elated to be a part of their special day!" says Ericka Dotson, Co-Founder and Creative Director of Indique Hair.

The Indique Bride program allows future brides and their bridal party to receive hair consultations at one of our 14 U.S. boutiques. Indique works with the bride's stylists to make sure her wedding day hair is achieved or pairs her with one of their partner stylists. Indique offers 100% virgin wefted hair, units, and clip-in extensions that can cater to any hairstyle. All of the textures can be cut, colored and heat styled for seamless blending.
