Seasonal Treatments to Inspire

SUMMER 2021

Our Skinimilism treatment menu signals simplicity and enjoying the simple things in life. It is a selection of treasures that should remind your customers of the importance of wellbeing. These are not just treats to be enjoyed on special occasions but an indulgence that if relished regularly can benefit mind, body and soul through the professionalism, experience and care of your therapists.

We hope you enjoy.

Top Tip: Look on the left-hand side to see at a glance whether the treatment is for face or body.

If you are still unsure about face-to-face treatments, please go to the back of our menu to see a selection of body ideas that will enhance your menu.

HYDRATE
PROTECT

THE ESSENTIAL DRENCH

Summer can do some strange things to your skin—like making it feel and look as dry as the Sahara. Between the scorching sun and the effects of air conditioning, it's easier than ever for your visage to feel parched. This face quenching skin rescue will hydrate, protect and nourish lack-lustre skin.
