

Rescript Reality

A 12 WEEK IMMERSIVE MANIFESTATION PROGRAM

Ready to Rescript?

Rescript Reality is a 12 week immersive manifestation program. Throughout our 12 weeks together, you will learn how to actualize the goals and ideas that mean the most to you. Stop simply hoping or wishing for a certain outcome. Stop complaining when things do not go your way. Let's work together to instill the methods, tools and mindset to live your preferred life. I will act as your coach, accountability partner and personal intuitive, helping you unlock the gifts and confidence within to achieve your desires.

Each week, we will approach your manifestation goal from a different angle. This ensures a holistic approach which helps you not only manifest with greater ease, but sustain your new reality once it is created. Each week's theme is tailored to give you the most impactful results. Breaking your big goal into these smaller sessions helps to create momentum for your ultimate outcome.

Who Will Benefit?

RESCRIPT REALITY IS FOR THOSE WHO ARE:

- Unable to manifest new love
- Unable to secure a new job
- Unable to increase financial flow
- Insecure & have low confidence
- Feeling discouraged about life
- Confused about their life purpose
- Lonely/need community
- Dissatisfied with an aspect of life.
- Falling short of achieving a certain goal
- Confused or unsure about how to manifest

Program Details

Each week, we will meet virtually on a 1 hour Zoom video call. We will review your manifestation goals in relation to that week's theme. You will have access to me between calls via email prettyspiritsco@gmail.com for any questions that may arise in relation to your goals or inquiries about assignments.

Assignments will be given each week in the form of digital worksheets, meditations, journaling prompts, manifestation methods, vlogging exercises, and reading assignments. Completion of the assigned work indicates commitment to the program. This dedication will lead you to the results you seek.

Throughout the program, I will check in on your progress and provide clarity, encouragement and support.

My Coaching Journey

In 2014, I knew I was coming to the end of my corporate career as it no longer fulfilled my spirit. I worked in New York City and Washington, DC for prominent companies in media and commercial real estate and yet, no matter the job title, promotion or raise, I was left feeling empty and uninspired. In 2015, I underwent a deep spiritual awakening. I worked with a coach to better understand my natural psychic abilities (which I had previously dissociated from and suppressed). I was able to heal deep fear, trauma and insecurity around expressing my spiritual gifts and eventually, this led me to found my own business focused on helping others with their spiritual growth, emotional wounds and psychic gifts and manifestation abilities.

Since then, I've had thousands of clients in 35+ countries who have worked with my business (PrettySpirits.com, co-owned with my best friend) and have found deeper peace, clarity, confidence, love and more. In 2023, I decided it was time to curate a new manifestation program centered around the creation themes I have taught for so many years—Rescript Reality - A 12 Week Immersive Manifestation Program was built to help people just like you discover a shorter path from desire to reality. If you feel you have been stuck in some area of manifesting — whether that's love life, more money, deeper purpose, more confidence, better friends or something else — this program will help you uncover your blockages, develop clear strategy, implement with accountability and measure results along the way. If you are committed and ready to invest in yourself, apply for enrollment today.

Why Work with Me

With a background in corporate America, psychic healing and holistic energy work, I am not your ordinary coach. I bring the toughness and discipline of a boss, with the empathy and intuition of a lightworker. The combination of these skills has led me to push my students to a higher level — which led them to results that they previously felt were unattainable. You will learn to take accountability while releasing the victim mindset and procrastination. I will coach you on the confidence and vision it takes to create the life you desire.

Stop thinking that your goals are so far off or that others are luckier or more qualified than you. You deserve everything that you have imagined, but you need the support, encouragement, tools and knowledge to take you to the next level. This is where the Rescript Reality Program – A 12 Week Immersive Manifestation Program comes in to provide the framework you need for success. Work with me and you will receive 12 weekly video meetings, email access to me in between sessions and intuitive guidance using tarot, oracle and my gift of clairvoyance. You will receive access to a resource vault full of digital products, book suggestions, video clips from thought-leaders and more. You will finally have the accountability partner you need along your manifestation journey.

FAQ's

Can I focus on as many manifestation goals as I want to during our program?

For best results, you may only select 1-3 manifestation goals per program. Focused attention and energy must be given to your desires. Too many goals can create a scattered effect or a success delay. For additional manifestation goals, another program will need to be purchased.

What if I change my mind after the program begins?

All sales are final. Take time to ensure you are ready and committed to the program before submitting payment. Once payment is collected, no refunds will be issued.

What if I miss a session, can I reschedule?

With proper notice, you may reschedule your weekly call. Reschedules require 24 hour notice. If you no-show or cancel last minute, a reschedule is not guaranteed and you may forfeit that week's session. Reschedules are contingent upon availability.

Is there a payment plan?

Yes, bi-weekly and monthly payment plans are available. Sessions will be provided upon receipt of payment. No services will be provided until payment is received.

Do you offer intuitive readings during our program together?

In your program, intuitive guidance regarding your manifestation goals is provided within reason. Intuitive readings about subjects outside of your goals can be bundled with your program at an additional cost.

FAQ's

What if I want to extend a weekly Zoom video call?

Based on availability, your weekly Zoom video calls can be extended in 30 minute increments for an additional fee.

How often can I contact you in between sessions?

You may contact me via email between session calls and I will respond within 24 hours. Communication must be limited to questions and clarity around your manifestation goal assignments, inquiries about the program, accountability support and success moments.

What if I want to do another program simultaneously about additional manifestation goals?

Availability of a simultaneous program is subject to the current enrollment capacity. If space allows, you may do an additional program at the same time (including separate weekly meetings) or you may stagger them.

Do you offer other coaching programs?

Yes, please email prettyspiritsco@gmail.com and express your desired goals. Currently confidence coaching and small business coaching programs are available.

Is there a referral fee?

Yes, if you refer a program candidate and they are selected to join, you qualify for a $500 referral fee. This will be paid out once the candidate successfully submits full payment.
